DETAILED ACTION
EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

- In claim 3, line 11, the language has been changed from "the first spring..." to "a first spring"
- In claim 3, line 24, the language has been changed from "...magnet for fixed the magnet..." to "...magnet for fixing the magnet..."
- In claim 5, line 2, the language has been changed from "...magnet for fixed the magnet..." to "...magnet for fixing the magnet..."

Claims 3-5 are allowed.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Frommer (1877839), Vironda (3492749), Carlson et al (2818783), Bergstrom (20020178901), Seecamp (4201113), Weldle et al (5581046), and Gerstenberger et al (4369759).

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicants independent claim 3 reads over what is considered to be the closest prior art (Seecamp) with regard at least to claim limitations directed to a recoil mechanism for a gun having a frame and a slide that is movable relative said frame, said recoil mechanism having a cylinder surrounded by a first spring, said cylinder comprising multiple internal chambers, each said chamber housing a spring, wherein said cylinder is magnetically attracted to a magnet proximal the front end of the slide, and that is attached by an axle connected to the frame, so that upon firing of said gun said slide, which is also magnetically attracted to said magnet, overcomes said magnetic attraction to said magnet and begins to recoil thereby compressing the first spring with said cylinder eventually overcoming the magnetic attraction to said magnet thereby recoiling rearward and successively compressing the springs that are contained within the cylinder and that surround said axle.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
